MEETING VENUE:

REGGIO CHILDREN INTERNATIONAL CENTRE, CENTRO INTERNAZIONALE LORIS MALAGUZZI

Via Bligny 1/a 42124 Reggio Emilia

The Loris Malaguzzi Centre, opened in February 2006, is a dedicated meeting place where professional development and research intersect for people in Reggio Emilia, Italy and the world who wish to innovate education and culture.

The Centre is an international place open to all ages, to ideas, different cultures, to hope and imagination. A place of the possible, both necessary and useful for the concept of a city ascribing value to change.

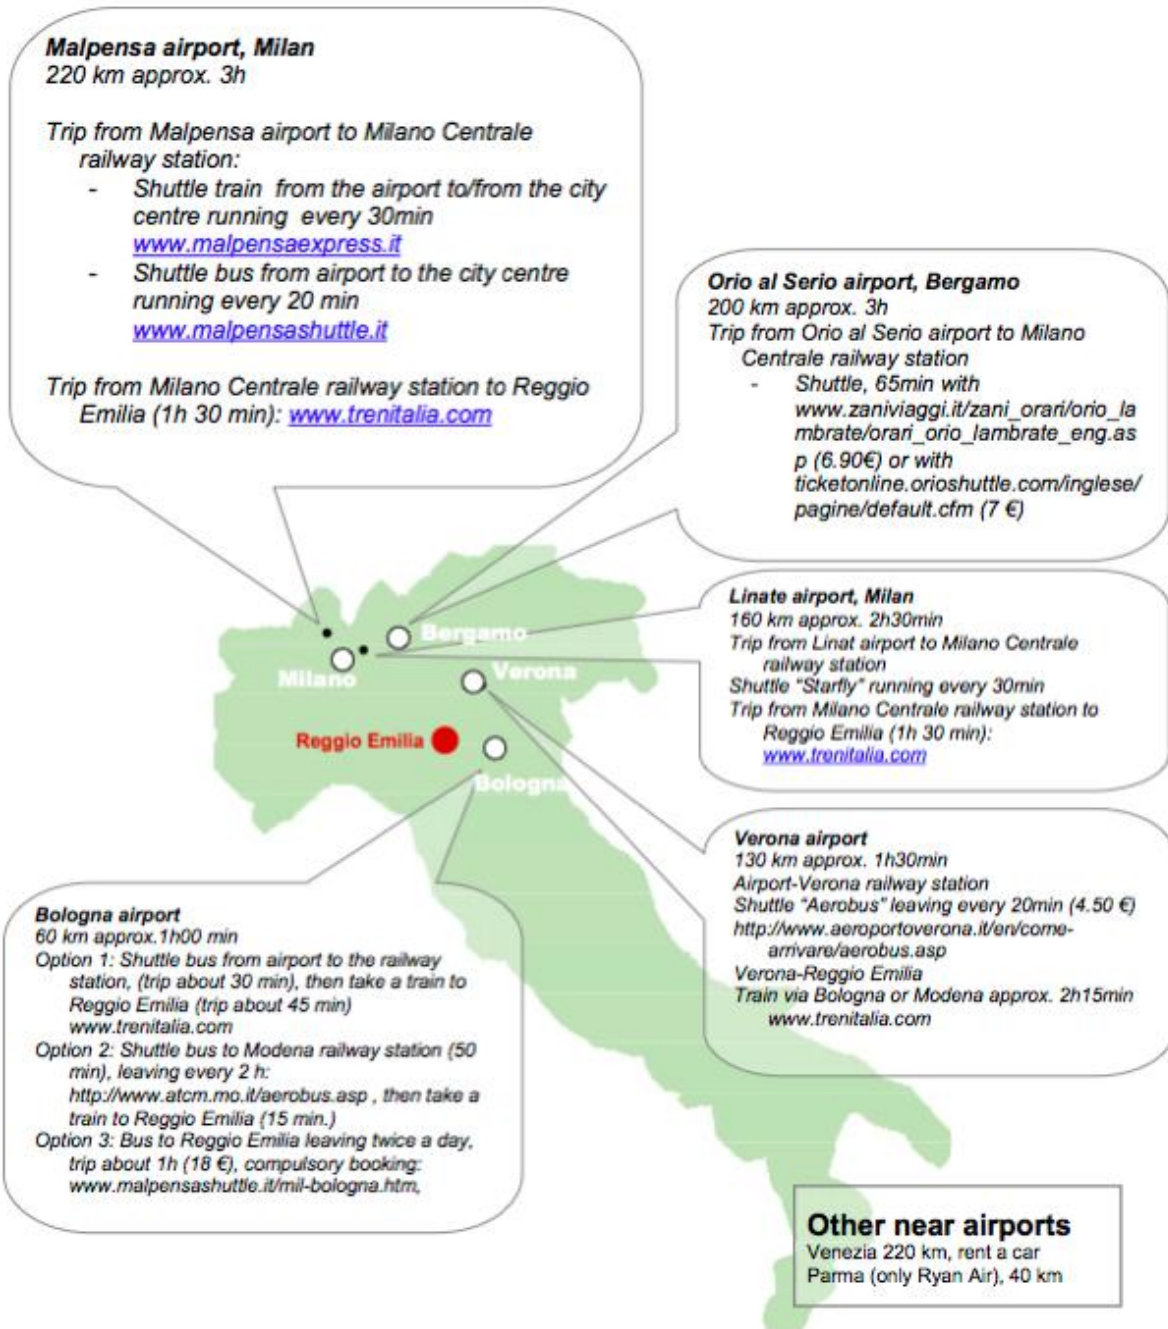

A large space in which research, innovation, and experimentation are carried out on educational content and processes in the different fields of knowledge.

The Centre is located on the site of the former Locatelli warehouses, purchased in 1998 by the Municipality of Reggio Emilia and destined to become the catalyst and symbol of the transformation of the city's north side.

The meeting venue is placed right behind the old railway station: once you get off from the train, walk along the underground passage to Piazzale Europa. The International Center Loris Malaguzzi is located in a yellow building called LOCATELLI right in front of the exit of the underground passage.
